Invitation for submission of manuscripts

We would like to draw your attention to Advances in Cognitive Psychology, a new web-based open access journal devoted to the scientific study of the human mind. According to the journal's broad focus, we invite scientists to submit high-quality manuscripts on topics from within the behavioral, cognitive, and brain sciences. The journal publishes empirical studies, theoretical papers, and critical reviews. Tutorial papers and methodological articles will also be considered. The journal occasionally publishes special issues on topics of widespread interest. The most recent special issues focused upon "Music Performance" and "Visual Masking and the Dynamics of Human Perception, Cognition, and Consciousness". All articles published in Advances in Cognitive Psychology are rigorously peer reviewed by international experts, including members of our Editorial Board and independent reviewers. A rapid review process and fast publication of accepted manuscripts free of charge are key features of Advances in Cognitive Psychology. The journal is published quarterly, exclusively in on-line form, and in an English language version only. Your work will receive the deserved high visibility within the worldwide scientific community because all articles published in Advances in Cognitive Psychology are indexed in PsychInfo and can be accessed without charge via the Internet. Indexing in PubMed will follow soon. For further information please visit the Advances in Cognitive Psychology homepage at <http://www.ac-psych.org> or contact the Editor-in Chief Piotr Jaśkowski (piotr.jaskowski@ac-psych.org).
