

Open-Level Position in Music Perception & Cognition

Department of Psychology, Neuroscience & Behaviour McMaster University

The McMaster Institute for Music and the Mind (MIMM) invites applications in the area of Music Perception and Cognition for a tenure stream open-level professorship in the Department of Psychology, Neuroscience & Behaviour at McMaster University. We seek a candidate with a Ph.D. and strong experimental research program who studies music from one or more of the following perspectives: auditory perception, multisensory processing, cognition, development, neuroscience, emotion, and evolution. Candidates with expertise in neuroimaging are strongly encouraged to apply.

The successful candidate will be an active participant in the new interdisciplinary research and education initiatives of MIMM (<http://mimm.mcmaster.ca>). McMaster University has a rich tradition in experimental psychology (www.science.mcmaster.ca/psychology), and particular strengths in perception, cognition, development, and neuroscience (<http://neuroscience.mcmaster.ca>).

Applicants should send a CV, statement of research and teaching interests, copies of representative publications, and three letters of recommendation to: Laurel Trainor, Chair, Music Perception and Cognition Search Committee, Department of Psychology, Neuroscience & Behaviour, McMaster University, 1280 Main Street West, Hamilton, ON, Canada L8S 4K1. LJT@mcmaster.ca

Review of applications will begin on September 15, 2007 and continue until the position is filled. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be considered first for the position. McMaster University is strongly committed to employment equity within its community, and to recruiting a diverse faculty and staff. The University encourages applications from all qualified candidates, including women, members of visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, members of sexual minorities, and persons with disabilities.

Inspiring Innovation and Discovery

